Confirmation (lead-free HJT modules)

To whom it may concern,

Meyer Burger and the Fraunhofer Institute for Solar Energy Systems ISE are working very close in the field of HJT solar cells and modules in joint research projects.

The Fraunhofer Institute for Solar Energy Systems ISE hereby confirms that the HJT modules from Meyer Burger are lead-free which is in contrast to standard PERC modules.

With kind regards,

Dr. Holger Neuhaus
Head of Department Module Technology
Division Photovoltaics
